- To teach the subjects, classes and groups as allocated by the Head of Department and the Leadership Team.
- To support and participate in the curriculum development work of the department including the writing of schemes of work and programmes of study.
- To be a form tutor and take responsibility for the progress, welfare and guidance of a group of students.
- To set homework on a regular basis, assess and mark promptly.
- To assess, monitor, record and report on student achievement in line with the school and the department policy including writing student reports and attending parents' evenings.
- To assist in the identification of student special educational needs and support the work of the Inclusion Team including participation in the writing and review of individual education plans.
- To follow the course outlines, syllabuses and schemes of work agreed by the department.
- To make effective use of student performance data and student and staff target-setting; and provide relevant information to the Head of Department.
- To monitor and record student attendance and support the department in the maintenance of high levels of student attendance.
- To prepare for and attend department meetings and support the work of the department.
- To support and carry out policies and practices to promote positive student behaviour and achievement within the framework of the school's Behaviour Policy.
- To participate in and support the staff development and appraisal schemes.
- To assist in the development of the School Raising Attainment Plan and its review mechanism.
- To undertake specific duties with the department as agreed with the Head of Department.
- To undertake such other duties as reasonably required by the Headteacher.

Supporting the Academy

In November 2022, we joined King's Group Academies (KGA). This has created excellent opportunities for teachers to share ideas and approaches across schools, for the benefit of our students.

At an appropriate level, according to the job role, grade and training received, all employees in the academy are expected to:

- Support and embrace the aims, values, mission and ethos of both King's Academy Easthampstead Park (KAEP) and King's Group Academies (KGA) and participate in a team approach to all aspects of school life.

KAEP

It takes a whole community to raise a child

KGA

HONESTY: A workplace where everyone feels safe and able to express their thoughts and ideas.

FAITH: We will encourage others to have faith in their own capabilities.

COURAGE: We embrace diversity and champion inclusivity.

- Attend and contribute to staff meetings and INSET days as required, and identify areas of personal practice and experience to develop.

Safeguarding

- Ensure personal understanding of the duties and responsibilities in relation to child protection and the safeguarding of children and young people. This includes understanding of the Academy's Child Protection Policy, Safeguarding Policy and Code of Conduct.
- Ensure all issues relating to pupils are reported immediately to the delegated member of staff.
- Attend mandatory training and refreshers to ensure a personal and up to date understanding of safeguarding requirements.

Health, Safety & Security

- Ensure a personal awareness of and compliance with, policies and procedures related to health and safety, security, confidentiality and data protection.
